

Q2 Highlights

The pilot of Kingfisher's unified IT programme was launched in Ireland. This is a key enabler of the 'ONE' Kingfisher plan.

Kingfisher's own-brand ranges received several international product design awards in the quarter. Winners included a MacAllister lawnmower with sliding handles and the Verve range of garden cutting tools.

B&Q

Highest sales of cooling products in five years (eg. fans and air con).

Bedding plant sales +11%

Sprinkler sales +44%

Strong performance in Flooring, such as hard wood, laminate and artificial grass.

Hand tool sales +11%

Introduction of roller checkouts completed.

Screwfix UK

On track to open 11 new stores in Q2.

Tour de Screwfix: 900 staff cycled a total of 6,000 miles and raised £162,000 for the Screwfix Foundation.

21 year old Nadia Connabeer was named Screwfix Trade Apprentice of 2015. She won the top prize worth £10,000.

Screwfix won a Gallup Great Workplace Award for outstanding workplace culture and staff engagement.

France

Launch of the Better Homes Better Lives design competition for young architects. Entrants will design the home of the future on a former Castorama store site.

Air conditioner and fan sales +124%

Other international

Koçtaş opened two new stores in Turkey.

